Debiting arrangements - The details of your debiting arrangements are shown in your DDR. By you signing or otherwise authorising the DDR, you authorise us to debit the amounts that become payable to us from your account. This agreement will remain in force until explicitly cancelled by either you or us. We will only arrange for funds to be debited from your account if we have sent to the address stated on the DDR a billing advice specifying the amount payable by you to us and when it is due. If a debit date falls on a day which is not a business day, the debit will be made on the next business day. If you are unsure which day your account will be debited you can contact your financial institution or phone 1300 881 246. We will make reasonable efforts to keep your direct debit records and account details confidential and secure, so that any of our employees or agents who have access to information about you do not make any unauthorised use, modification, reproduction or disclosure of that information, except where the disclosure of certain information is required by law or is necessary for purposes of this agreement. 2. Amendments - We may vary any details of this agreement at any time after giving you 14 days written notice. Disputes - If you consider that there has been an error in debiting your account, you should call us on 1300 881 246 in the first instance and follow up with written notification. Alternatively, you can still refer the matter to your financial institution. Where we find an error has occurred we will arrange with your financial institution to adjust your account (including interest and charges) accordingly and notify you in writing the amount adjusted. Where we find an error has not occurred, we will provide you with reasons and evidence of our finding in writing. 4. Your responsibilities - It is your responsibility to ensure that your financial institution accepts direct debits on your nominated account (direct debiting may not be available on all accounts), and to ensure that there are sufficient funds in your nominated account by the due date to enable debits to be made by us. If debiting is unsuccessful due to insufficient funds, you may be charged a fee by us and your financial institution and you must arrange the debit payment to be made by another method or arrange for sufficient clear funds to be in your account by an agreed time so we can process the debit payment. You should check your account statement to verify the amounts debited from your account are correct. You should check that your account details on your DDR are correct and the authority given to us to debit your nominated account is consistent with the account authority or signing instructions held by your financial institution for that account. You must advise us if your nominated account is transferred, closed or any other account details change, and arrange a suitable alternative payment method if your debiting arrangements are cancelled. 4. Notification - If you wish to notify us in writing about anything relating to this agreement, you should write to Business Fuel Cards Pty Ltd, GPO Box 3852, Sydney NSW 2001. If we wish to notify you about anything relating to this agreement, we will send a notice in the ordinary post to the address you have given us in the DDR. - (a) Any reference in this clause to a term defined or used in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 is, unless the context indicates otherwise, a reference to that term as defined or used in that Act.
- (b) Unless expressly included, the consideration for any supply made under or in connection with this Agreement does not include an amount on account of GST payable or notionally payable in respect of the supply (GST Exclusive Consideration) except as provided under this clause.
- (c) Any amount referred to in this Agreement (other than an amount referred to in clause 27(h)) which is relevant in determining a payment to be made by one of the parties to the other is, unless indicated otherwise, a reference to that amount expressed on a GST exclusive basis.
- (d) To the extent that GST is payable in respect of any supply made by a party (Supplier) under or in connection with this Agreement, the consideration to be provided under this Agreement for that supply (unless it is expressly stated to include GST) is increased by an amount equal to the GST Exclusive Consideration (or its GST exclusive market value if applicable) multiplied by the rate at which GST is imposed in respect of the supply.
- (e) The recipient must pay the additional amount payable under clause 27(d) to the Supplier at the same time as the GST Exclusive Consideration is otherwise required to be provided.
