- ✓ Be responsive to your needs & treat all complaints seriously
- ✓ Aim to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible
- ✓ Keep you informed regarding the progress and status of your query or complaint
- ✓ Give you the ability to have your complaint dealt with on a confidential basis or by an independent person upon request

What is a Complaint?

- ✓ When the service and customer experience is not to your satisfaction
- ✓ When you feel we have given you the incorrect information
- ✓ When you believe a staff member has not acted reasonable and professionally
- ✓ When we have failed to make the correct payments regarding your salary package
- ✓ When you feel that we have not taken due diligence and duty of care disclosing information

How Do I Make a Complaint?

Our frontline staff will be the main point of contact for lodging a complaint by phone, email, online feedback or in writing. We understand at times, different complaints require senior attention and therefore we have developed three tiered contact points to help meet your expectations.

Remunerator's complaints process is structured to encourage an efficient resolution at first point of contact. Our frontline staff are empowered to work through and resolve any customer complaint.

Stage 1 - Frontline Staff (Customer Relations Officer, Client Relations Officer, Leasing Consultant)

You should aim to speak with the person whom you have been dealing with as they will have working knowledge of your past history.

Stage 2 - Customer Relations Manager, Client Relations Manager, Fleet & Leasing Team Leader

If you believe that your matter has not been dealt with in a fair and reasonable manner, you may escalate your complaint to our Customer Relations Manager, Client Relations Manager or Fleet & Leasing Team Leader via email or online feedback.

Stage 3 - For confidential or Unresolved Complaints

If your complaint has progressed through stages 1 and 2 and remains unresolved or your complaint is of a confidential nature, you can contact our National Operations Manager or Complaints Manager directly in writing. Your complaint will then progress through our confidential case management process which may involve Remunerator's Executive Management to ensure resolution.
